As a Grade 4 counsel on the general, sexual offences and fraud CPS lists Gareth Munday prosecutes and defends in cases of complex fraud, serious sexual offending, violence and firearms.

Gareth specialises in prosecuting complex fraud cases leading other junior counsel often against QC's.

Gareth's work often finds him calling and cross examining expert witnesses in banking, forensic accounting, sales and valuation of commodities, computers, phones and cell site. Due to the nature of his work Gareth is used to presenting cases with I-pad jury bundles and through electronic presentation.

In conjunction with his criminal practice Gareth regularly advises Police Forces on matters of sensitive disclosure and preventative orders, Local Authorities regarding family proceedings and linked criminal proceedings, and investigative agencies and companies relating to contemplated criminal proceedings for fraud.

Areas of Expertise

Crime

Gareth regularly prosecutes serious sexual and violent offending, where vulnerable witnesses are called for the prosecution. He is experienced in presenting expert evidence on GSR, DNA, cell site, and medical evidence including psychologists and psychiatrists.

Gareth's work often includes matters of a sensitive nature, be that personal vulnerability of witnesses or involving disclosure issues.

Gareth is instructed to both prosecute and defend in serious road traffic offences, where serious injury and death have resulted; instructed by the CPS and Solicitors acting through legal aid or through Insurers

Gareth is currently instructed on a number of the Operation Venetic cases.

Examples of Gareth's recent work include:

- R v B – prosecuting a campaign of historic sexual abuse of a family member resulting in conviction and sentences of 18 years imprisonment
- R v SA – case involving human trafficking of young girls into being used in the Defendants drugs enterprise, complicated by ongoing vulnerability of the victims' and attempts to prevent them from giving evidence
- R v O'B, MB, GN, MW, JL, GM, LW – prosecution of two linked groups across two court centres, involving drugs supply of 100's of kilo's of class A drugs.

- R v Hand M – gang associated shooting in North London [Trident], involving GSR, cell site, enhanced CCTV and DNA
- R v NO and MK – gang associated shooting in North London [Trident]
- R v COAS – prosecution of participants in fight that led to the death of one of their number, and subsequent attempt to prevent the murderer from being apprehended, involves anonymous witnesses
