Theo joined Chambers in October 2019 after successfully completing pupillage under the supervision of Shahram Shargy, Tim Parker, James Thacker and Thom Dyke. He has already established a busy court and paper practice across all aspects of Chambers' work.

Theo is a certificated mediator and accepts instructions to oversee, advise on and represent participants at a wide range of ADR methods.

Prior to pupillage, Theo spent one year working as a solicitor's agent in County Courts across the South-East, instructed upon trials, infant approvals, CCMCs and a wide range of interlocutory applications.

In his spare time, Theo is an enthusiastic sportsman and an avid supporter of Premiership side Brighton and Hove Albion FC.

Areas of Expertise

Personal Injury & Costs

Theo is rapidly developing a varied personal injury practice, providing realistic, pragmatic advice to Claimants and Defendants alike, at all stages of the litigation process. He is regularly instructed to represent Claimants and Defendants in the County Court, acting in Multi-Track and Fast Track trials, alongside the full range of interlocutory applications.

Theo offers drafting, advice and representation in a wide array of personal injury matters, including:

- Road Traffic Accidents;
- Claimants against employers;
- Claims against occupiers;
- Product liability claims;
- Defective Premises Act claims;
- Highways Act claims;
- Animals Act claims;
- Claims under the Montreal Convention.

He also advises and represents those bringing claims or challenging decisions in respect of Criminal Injuries Compensation and Industrial Injuries Disablement Benefit.

Theo is comfortable dealing with costs arguments arising in the course of civil litigation, and is well-versed in arguments relating to Portal Claims, fundamental dishonesty and outcomes of multi-party litigation. He often fields requests for standalone advice to professional clients on novel costs arguments.

Theo accepts instructions on a CFA or DCFA basis in appropriate cases.

Commercial Litigation

Theo advises and acts for parties to a wide array of commercial proceedings, including:

- Credit Hire;
- Contractual disputes;
- Property disputes;
- Possession proceedings;
- Inheritance Act claims;
- Injunction applications;
- Professional negligence claims.

He offers candid, pragmatic advice at all times with a constant focus on securing the best outcome for his clients.

Theo is also familiar with insolvency matters, appearing in a personal bankruptcy dispute involving approximately £4m of liabilities and a dispute over international assets.

Family and COP

Public

Theo is regularly instructed by local authorities, parents and the children's guardian in public law proceedings involving substance abuse, neglect, domestic violence, sexual abuse and inflicted injury.

Theo advises and acts from the initial stages of public law cases (EPO/ICO) through to Fact Finding and Welfare Final Hearings. He is comfortable appearing in applications under the inherent jurisdiction of the High Court, and in applications for locating and recovering missing or abducted children.

Theo has a particular interest in cases with an international element and appears in proceedings for Forced Marriage Protection Orders in the High Court.

Private

In the private family sphere, Theo represents parties in financial proceedings, applications for Child Arrangement Orders, and for non-molestation, occupation and transfer of tenancy orders.

An ability to identify and focus on only strictly relevant matters, combined with a straight-talking, approachable manner, makes him appealing to lay-clients, professional clients and tribunals alike.

COP

Theo is actively looking to expand his Court of Protection practice. He was recently instructed by a Local Authority to appear in a complex case involving parallel proceedings under the Forced Marriage (Civil Protection) Act 2007 and alleged misappropriation of P's funds.

Notable Family and COP cases

MPS v Bile & Ors [2019] EWHC 1868

---

Instructed by the Metropolitan Police in an application for Forced Marriage Protection Order. After just 3 months of practice, he was praised by Holman J [at 14] for his "skilled, measured approach" to the application at final hearing.

---

Re. O [2021]

---

Representing a Local Authority in proceedings involving contested allegations of inflicted injuries, pool of perpetrator issues and fluctuating capacity of a party.

Crime

Theo is a CPS Grade 2 prosecutor and is regularly instructed both to prosecute and defend criminal cases and appeals in the Crown Court and the Magistrates' Court. A conscientious and congenial advocate, who has experience deploying the techniques of The Advocate's Gateway Toolkits, Theo is well-suited to cases involving young and vulnerable witnesses.

Theo represents defendants charged with serious matters such as burglary, robbery and firearms offences.

Notable Crime cases

R v D & Ors [2019] (Magistrates)

---

The 4 Defendants (3 youths) were charged with the joint enterprise assault of two young victims, alongside individual counts of assault (relating to a third), criminal damage and theft. Having advised on charge, Theo prosecuted the four-day trial, resisting submissions of no case and securing convictions on all charges. Theo also prosecuted the appeals, which were withdrawn on day 1 of trial.

---

R v R [2019] (Central Criminal Court)

---

Advised and represented D, who pleaded guilty to two commercial burglaries, with 14 previous convictions for like offences. D given a suspended sentence.
